Entry Signage

This is a concept of what a park entry sign could look like.

Trail Signs

This is an initial concept of what the trail signs for each feature at the Meadows could look like.

Pavilion

The Pavilion would offer shelter from the sun and rain and be a great place for a picnic lunch or birthday party

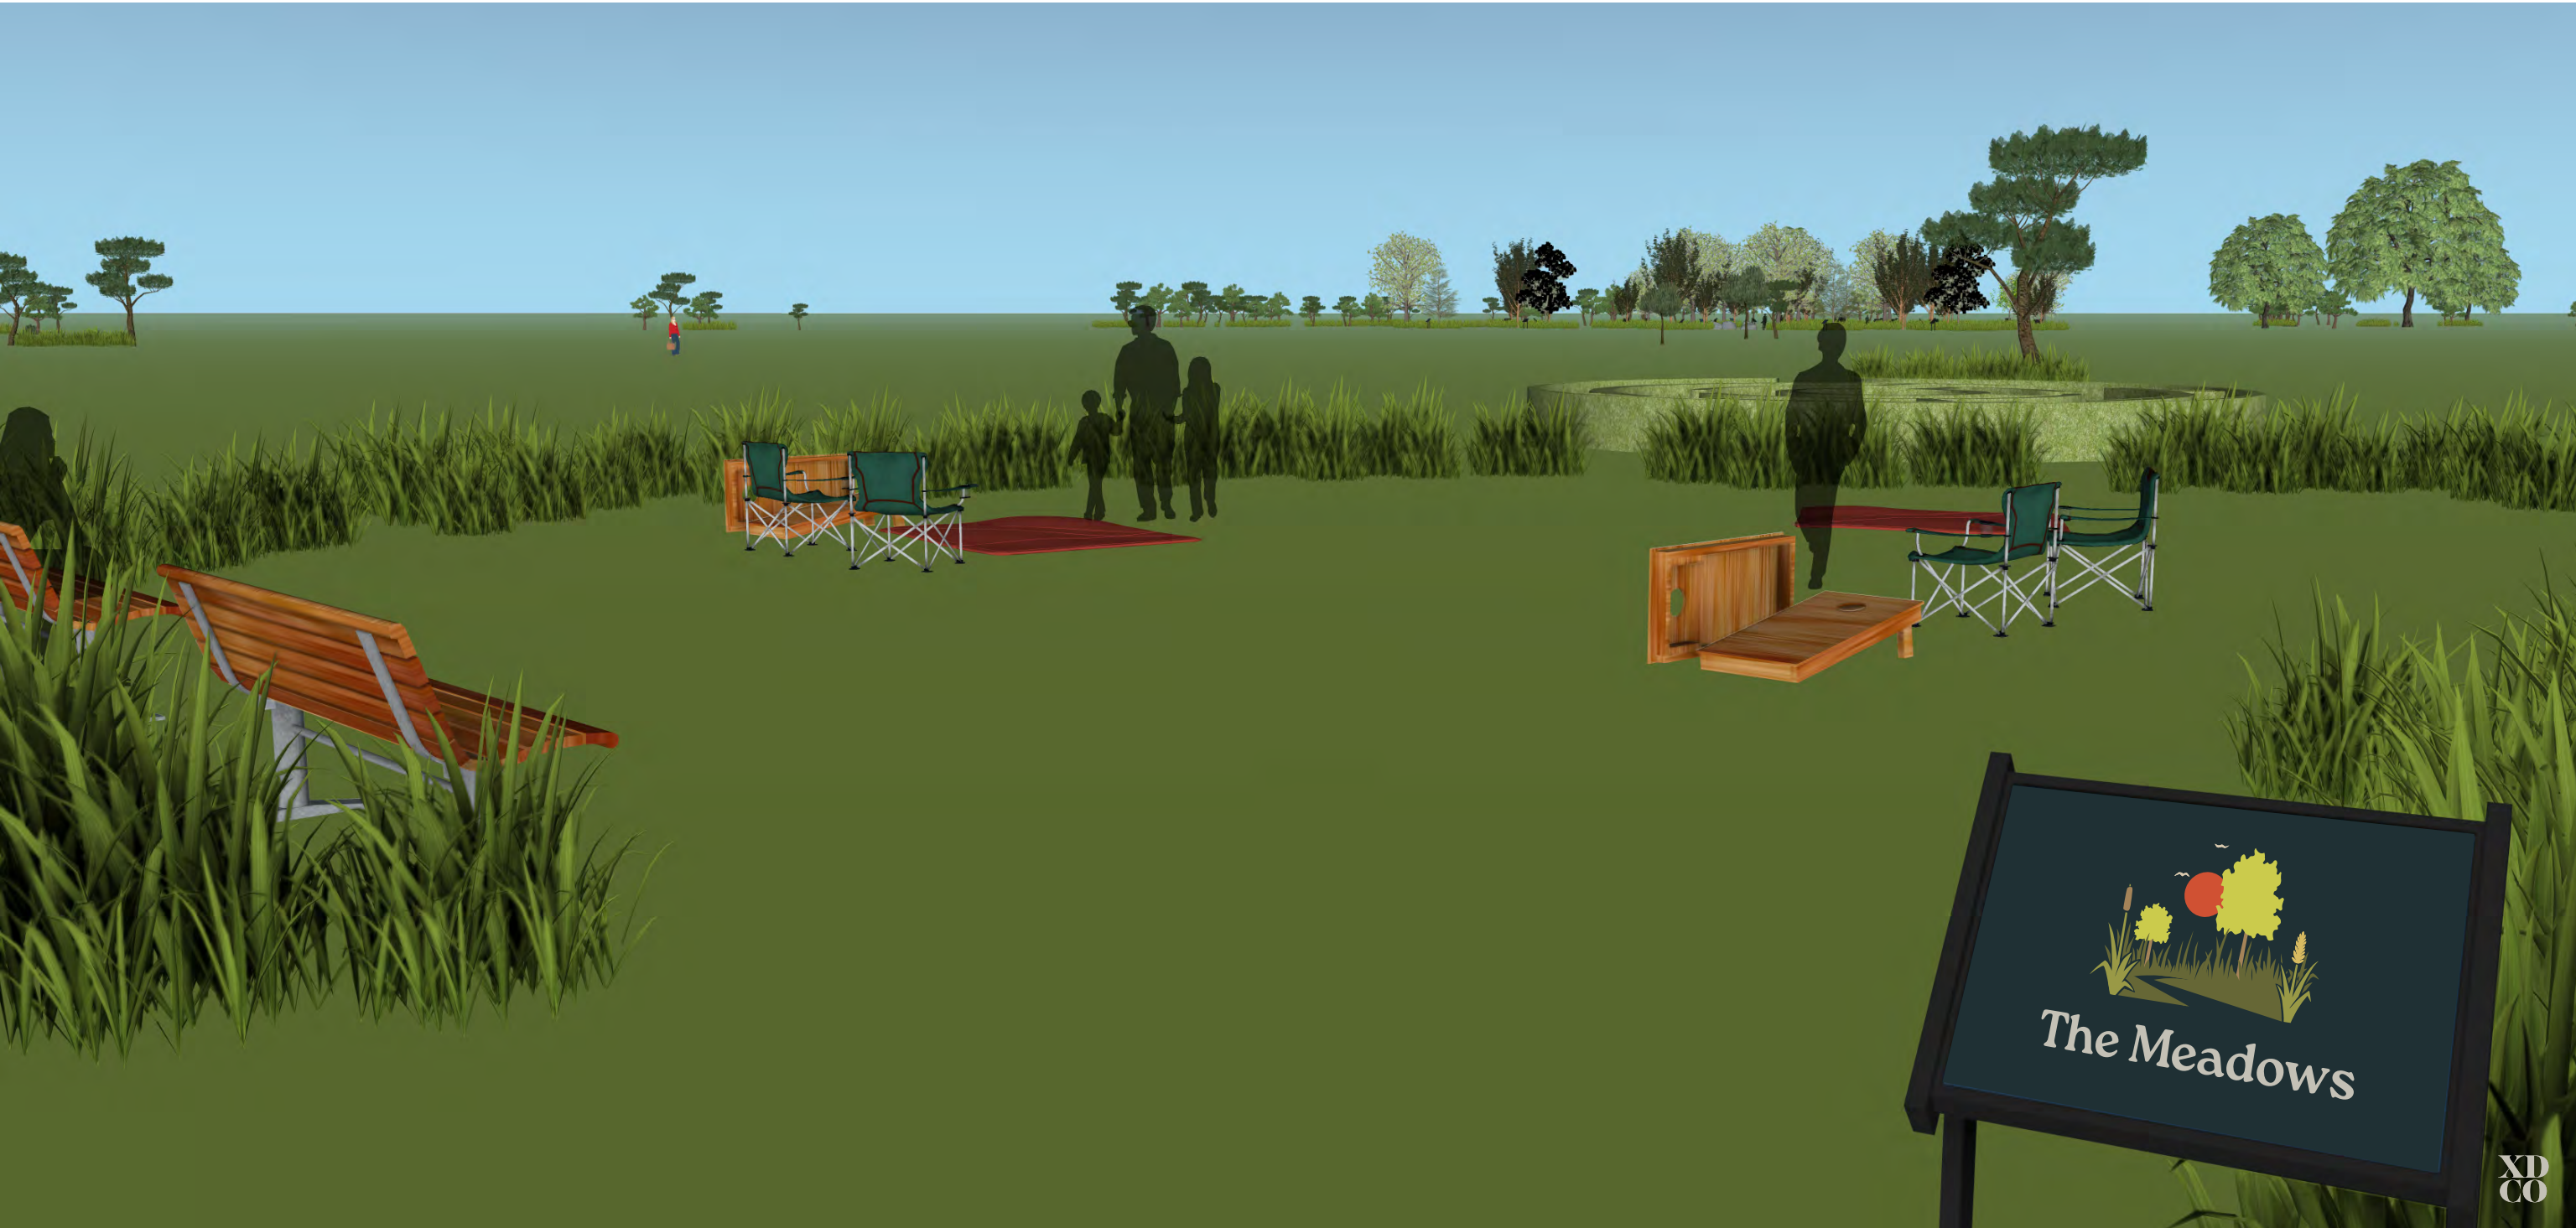

Restrooms

Attached or near the Pavilion would be a set of restrooms for convenience

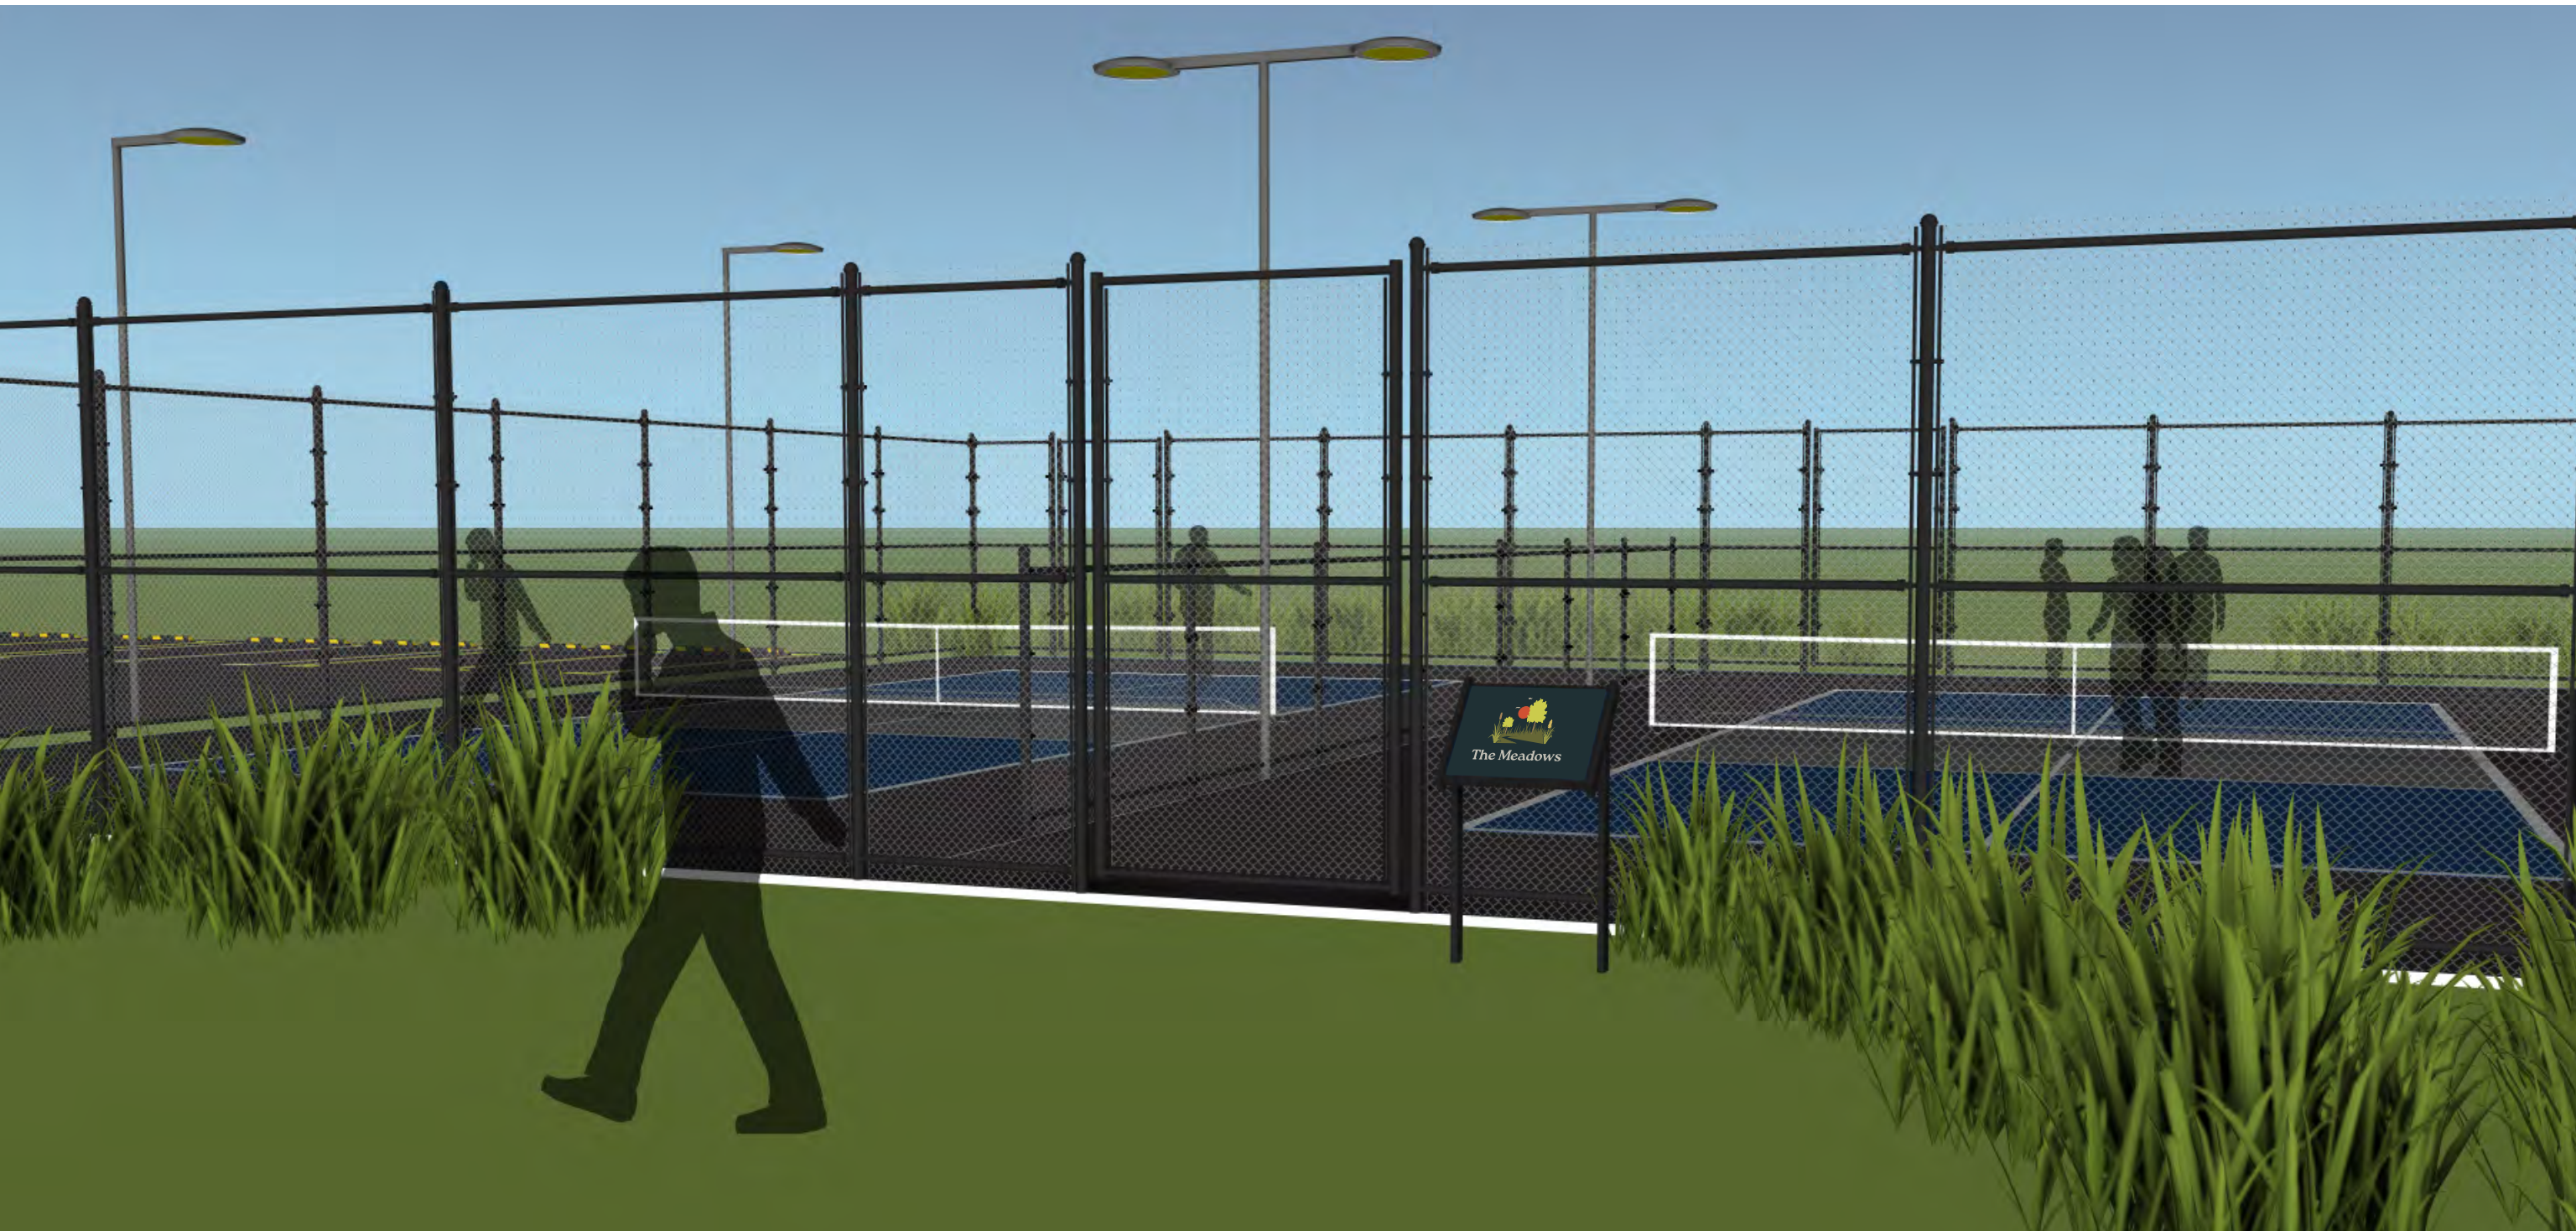

Lounge Space

Behind the Pavilion would be an open space for yard games and overflow space for picnics and camp chairs

Pickle Ball Courts

In front by the parking lot would be 2 Pickleball courts

Playground

Next to the Pavilion would be an engaging playground with benches along the edges

Outdoor Gym

By the Lounge and Playground would live a small rudimentary but highly versatile outdoor gym structure

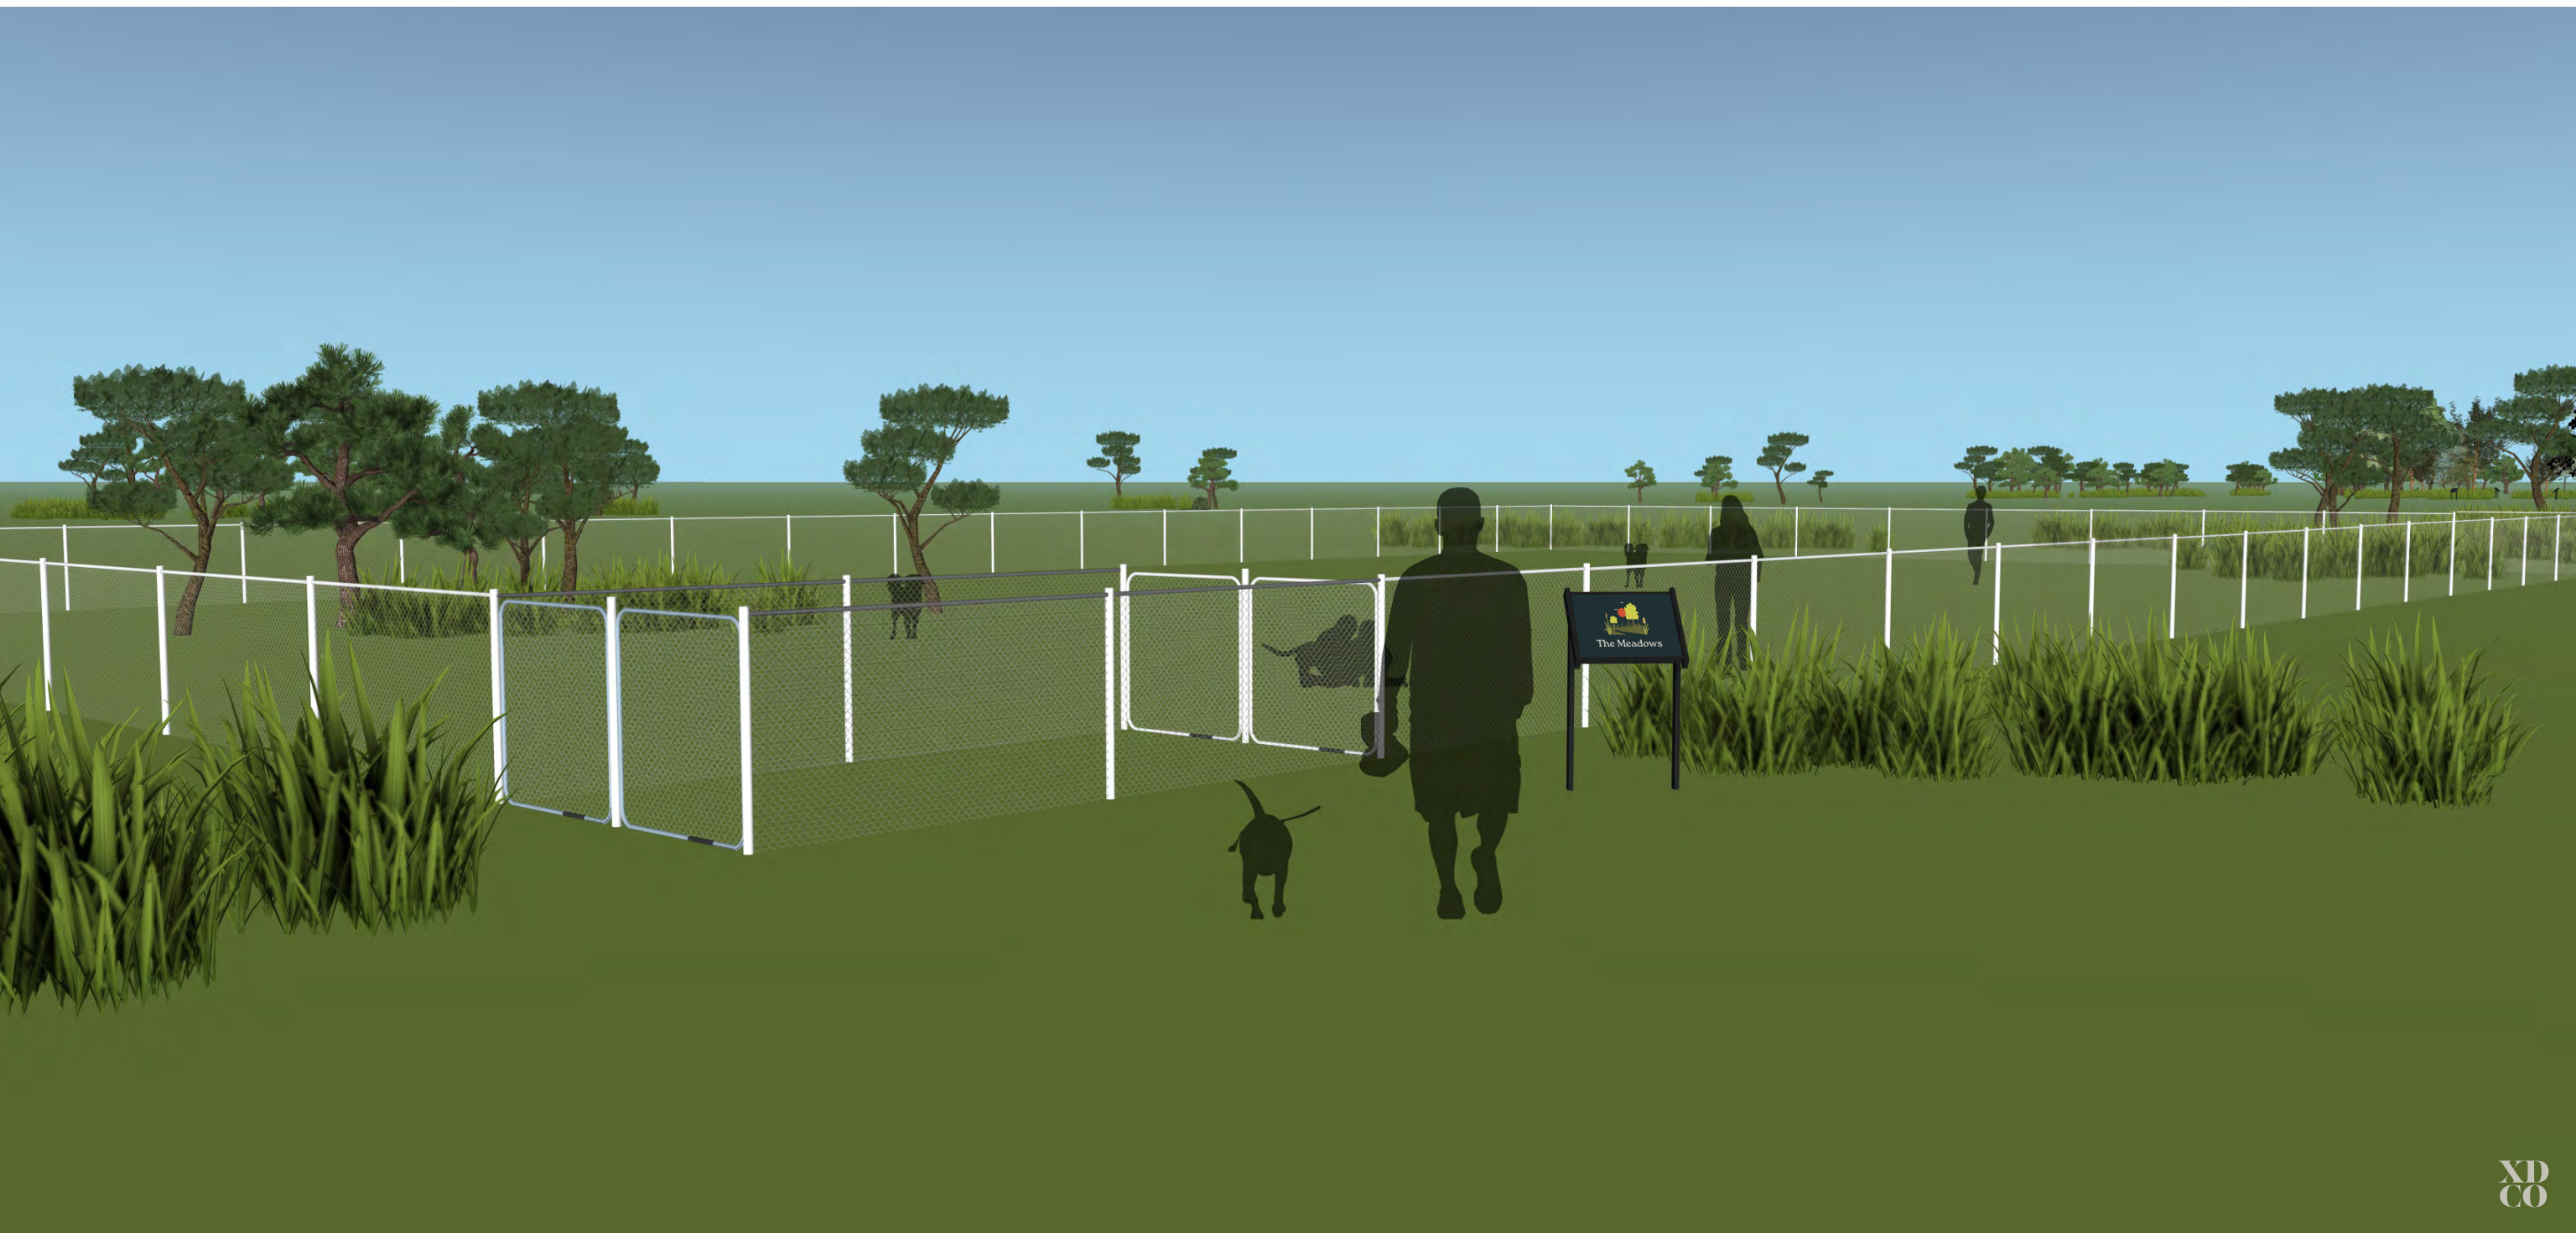

Memorial Arbor

On the south west side of the property where the trail splits would be the memorial arbor (this could move or be scattered throughout the property for the best growing conditions based on the type of tree)

Dog Park

South of the Pavilion would be a dog park where our furry friends can have some off leash play time

ACD Greenhouse + Community Garden

The north west side of the property would host an Antrim Conservation District Greenhouse and community garden. The greenhouse would function year round while the outdoor garden would be seasonal

Trail Interactions - Trail Stories

Along the trail will be pages of a book similar to those at the ACD office to tell stories and engage kids along their walk

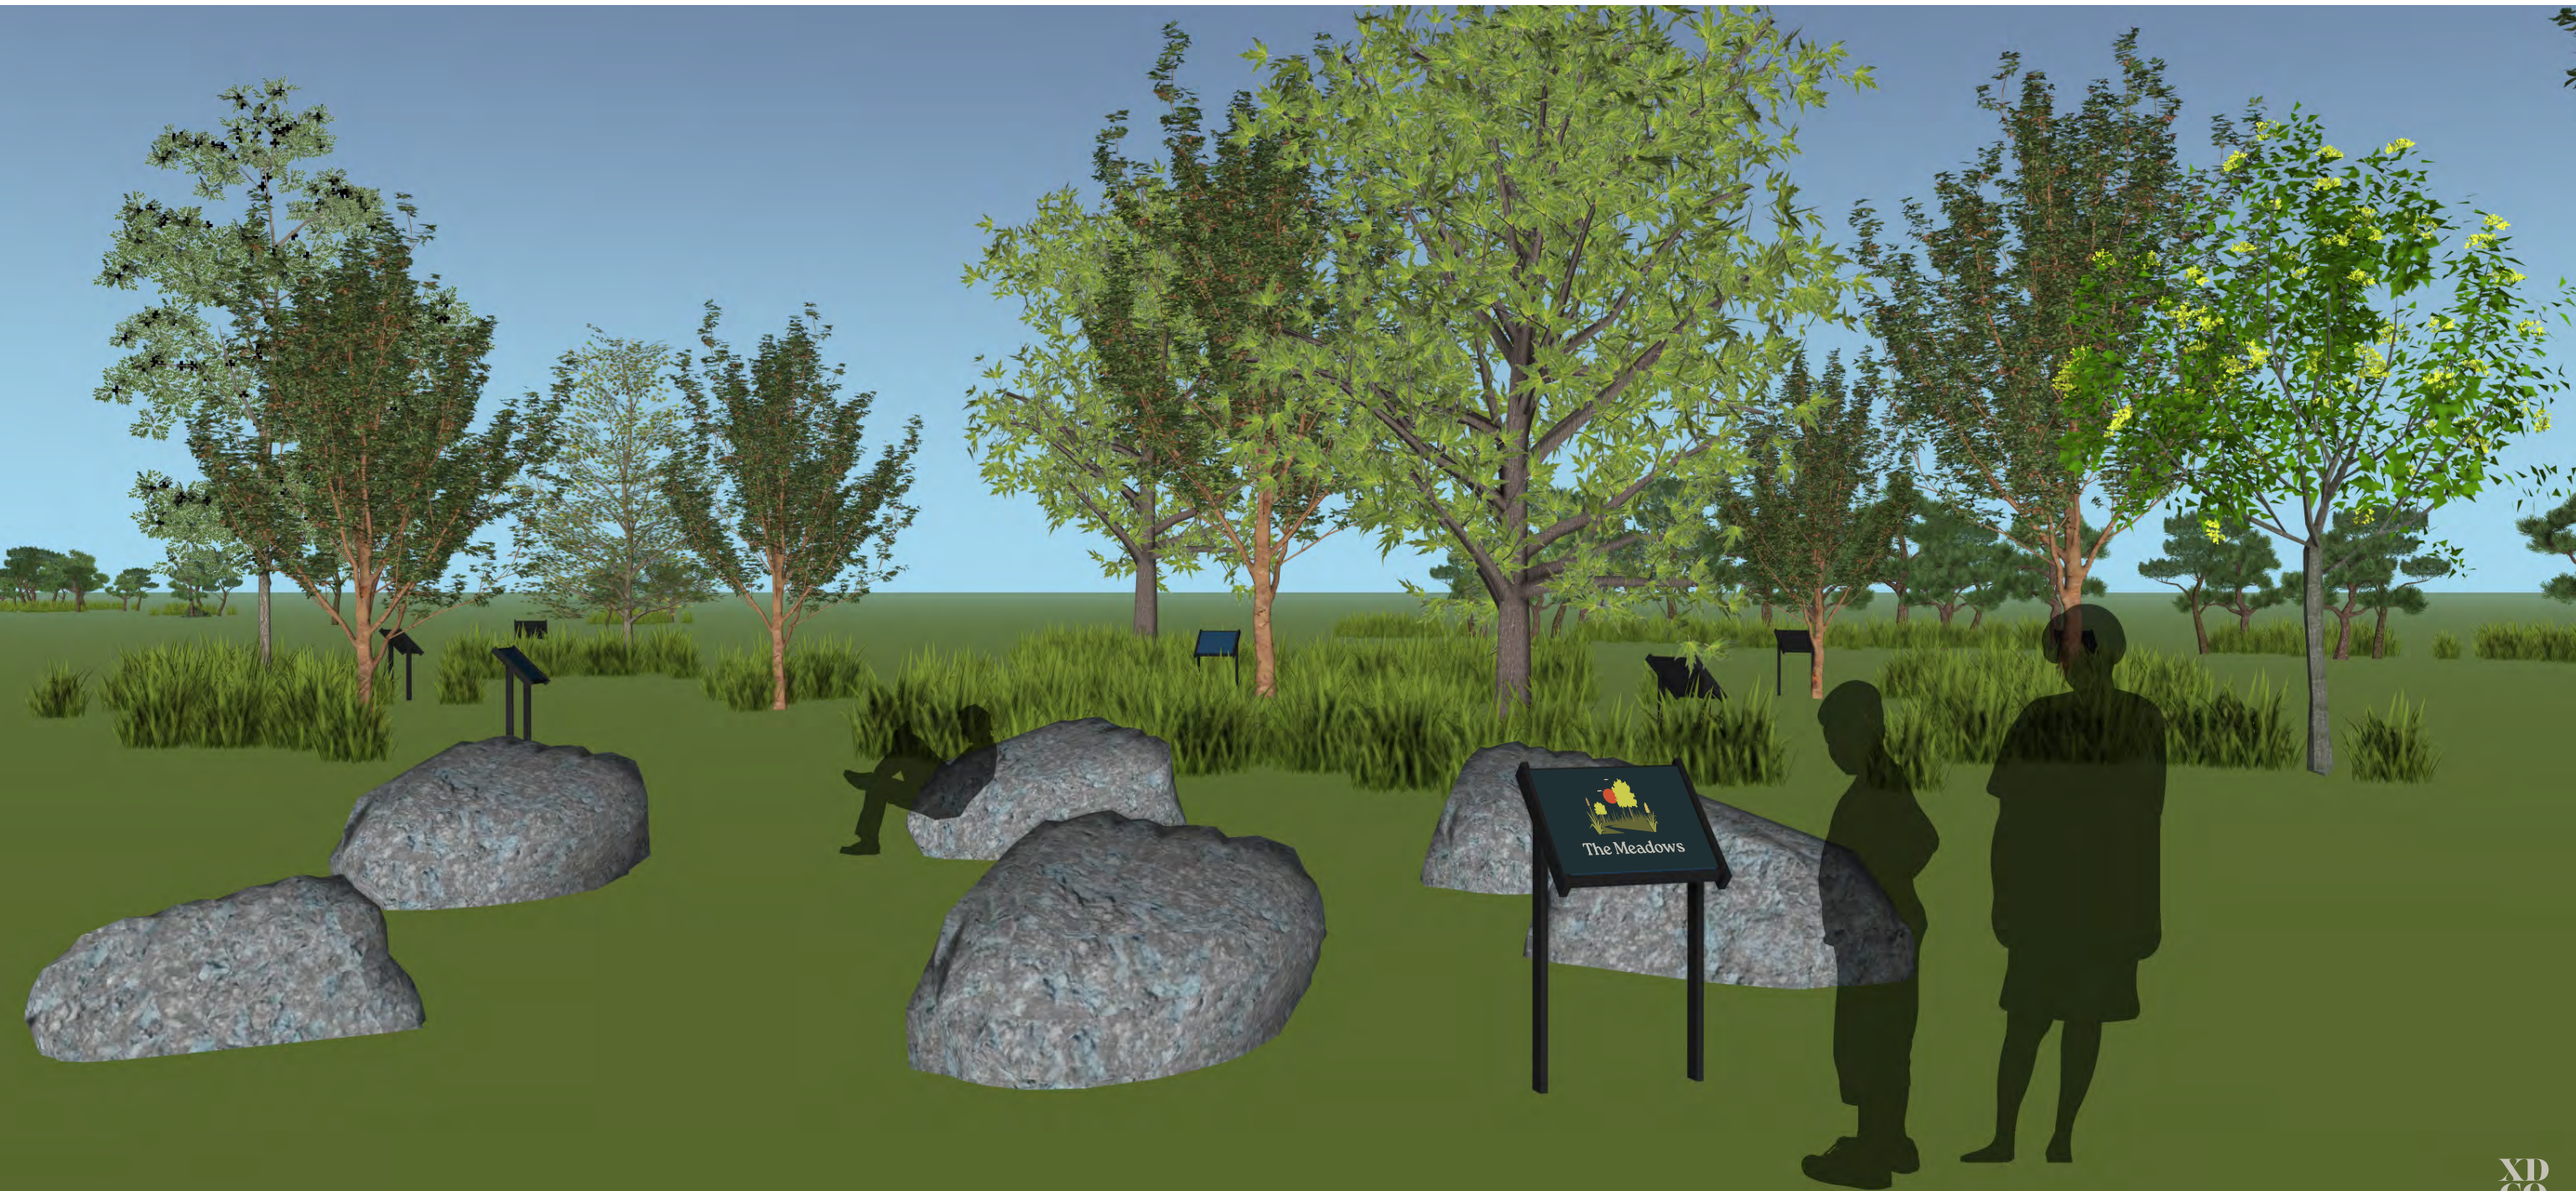

Trail Interactions - Coordination Station

Coordination Station would have tree stumps of various sizes on an secondary or side trail for some additional play

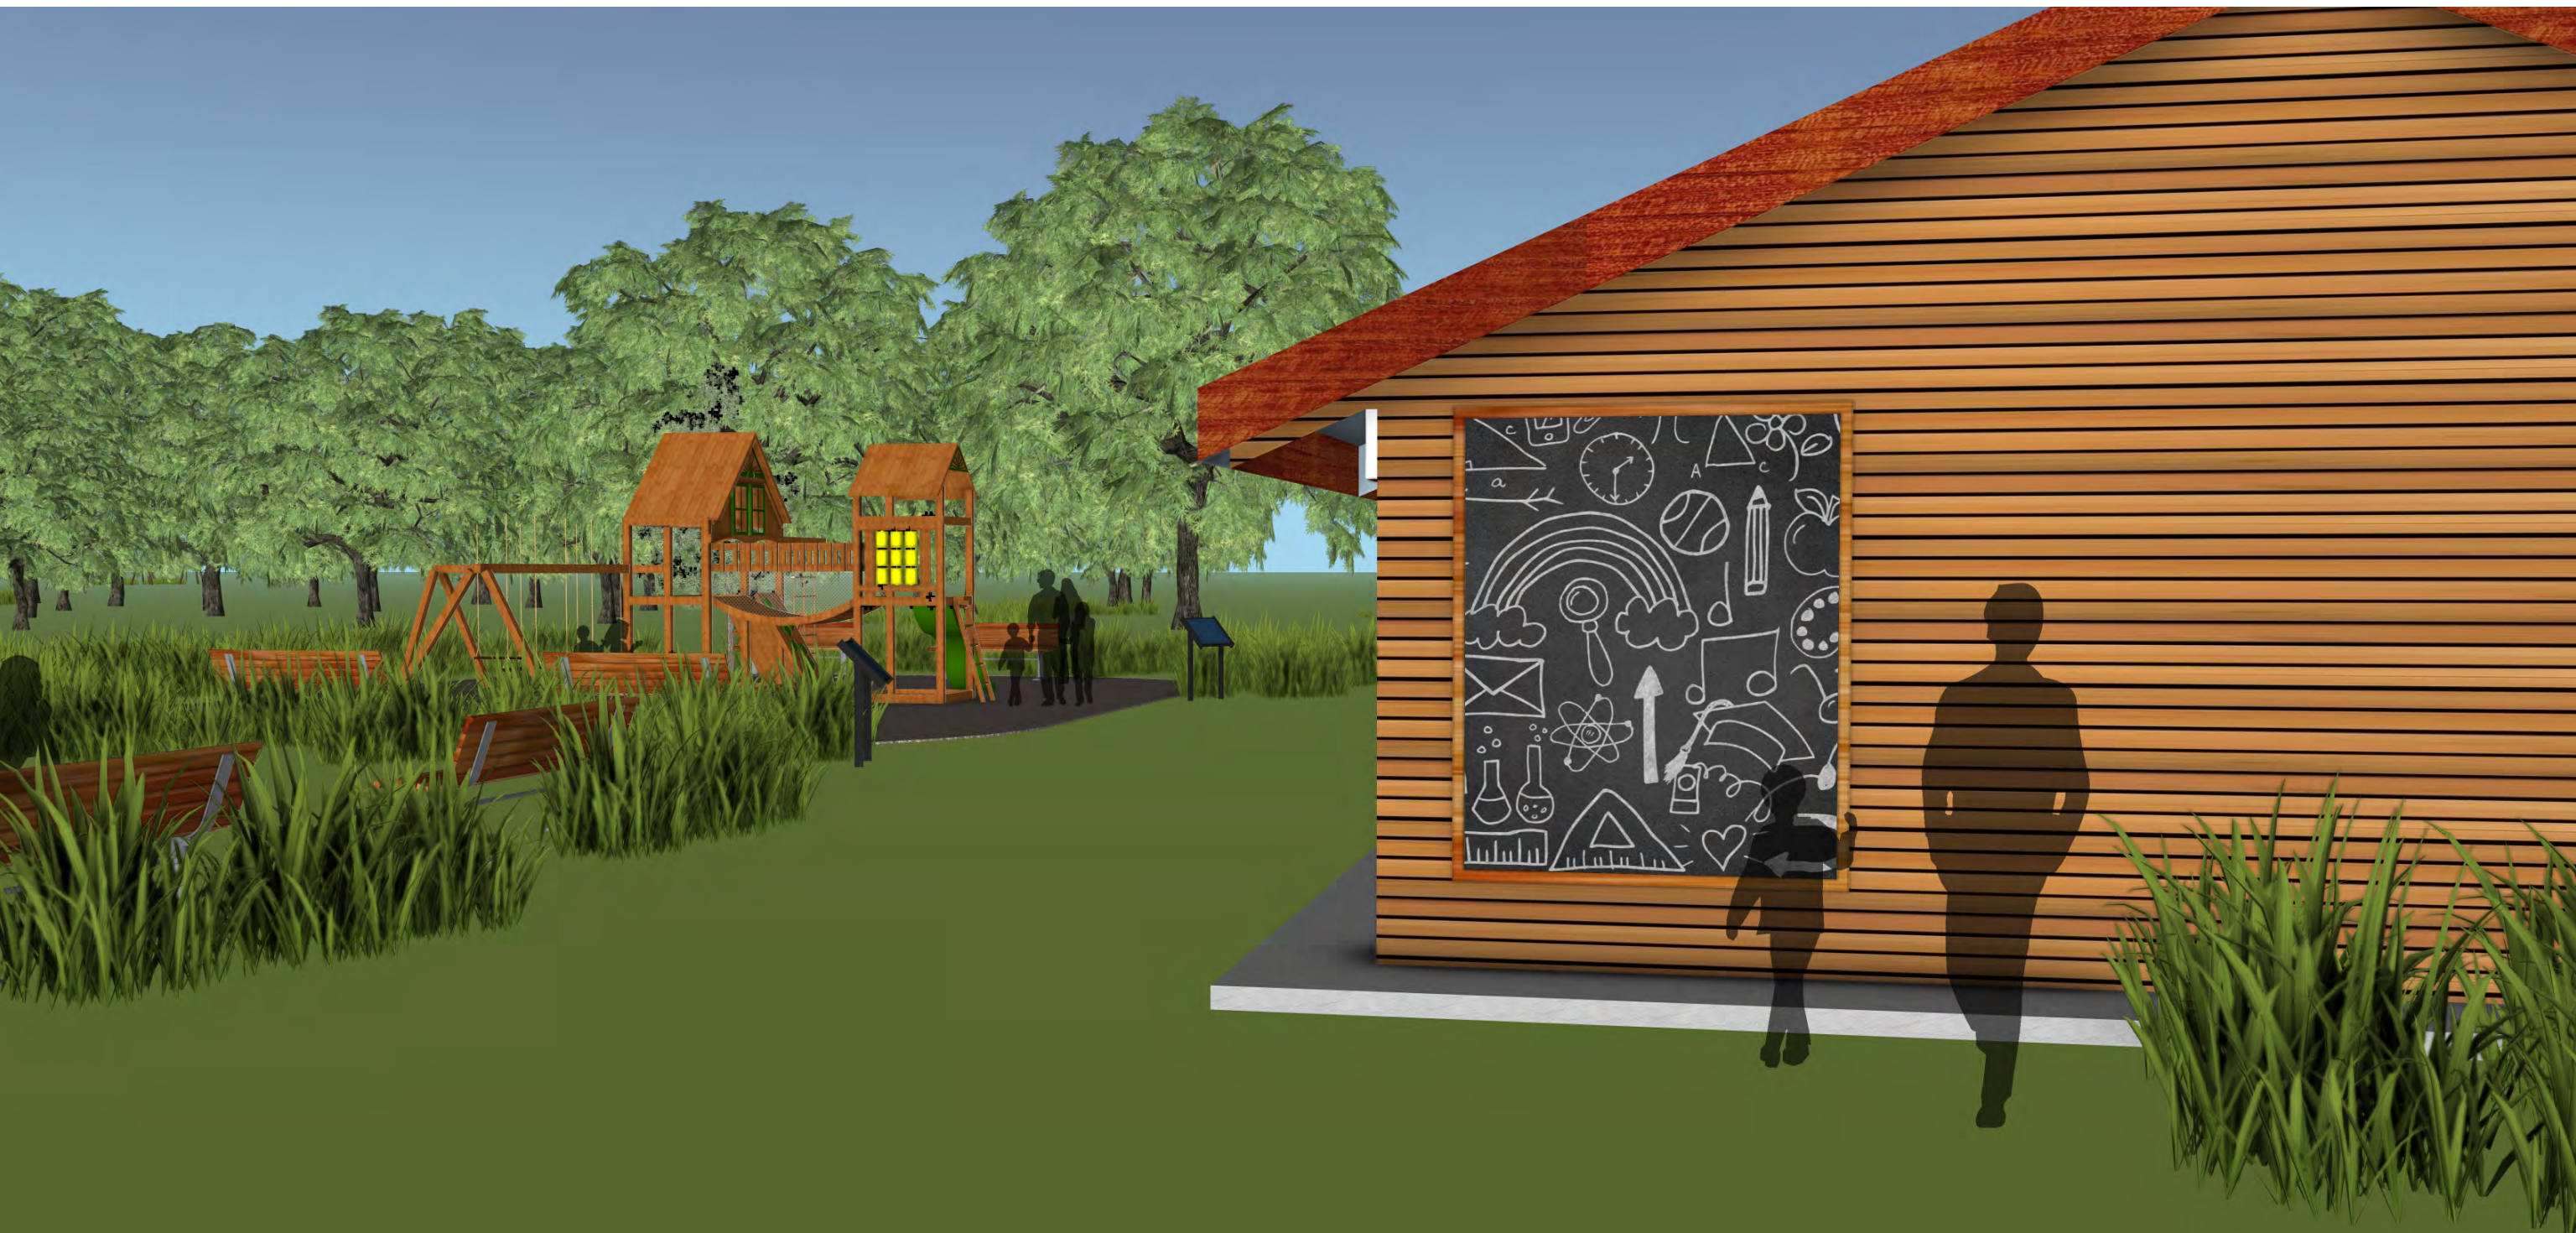

Trail Interactions - Story Circle

Story Circle would be located within the memorial arbor where a few large rocks allow for seating to sharing memories and tell stories

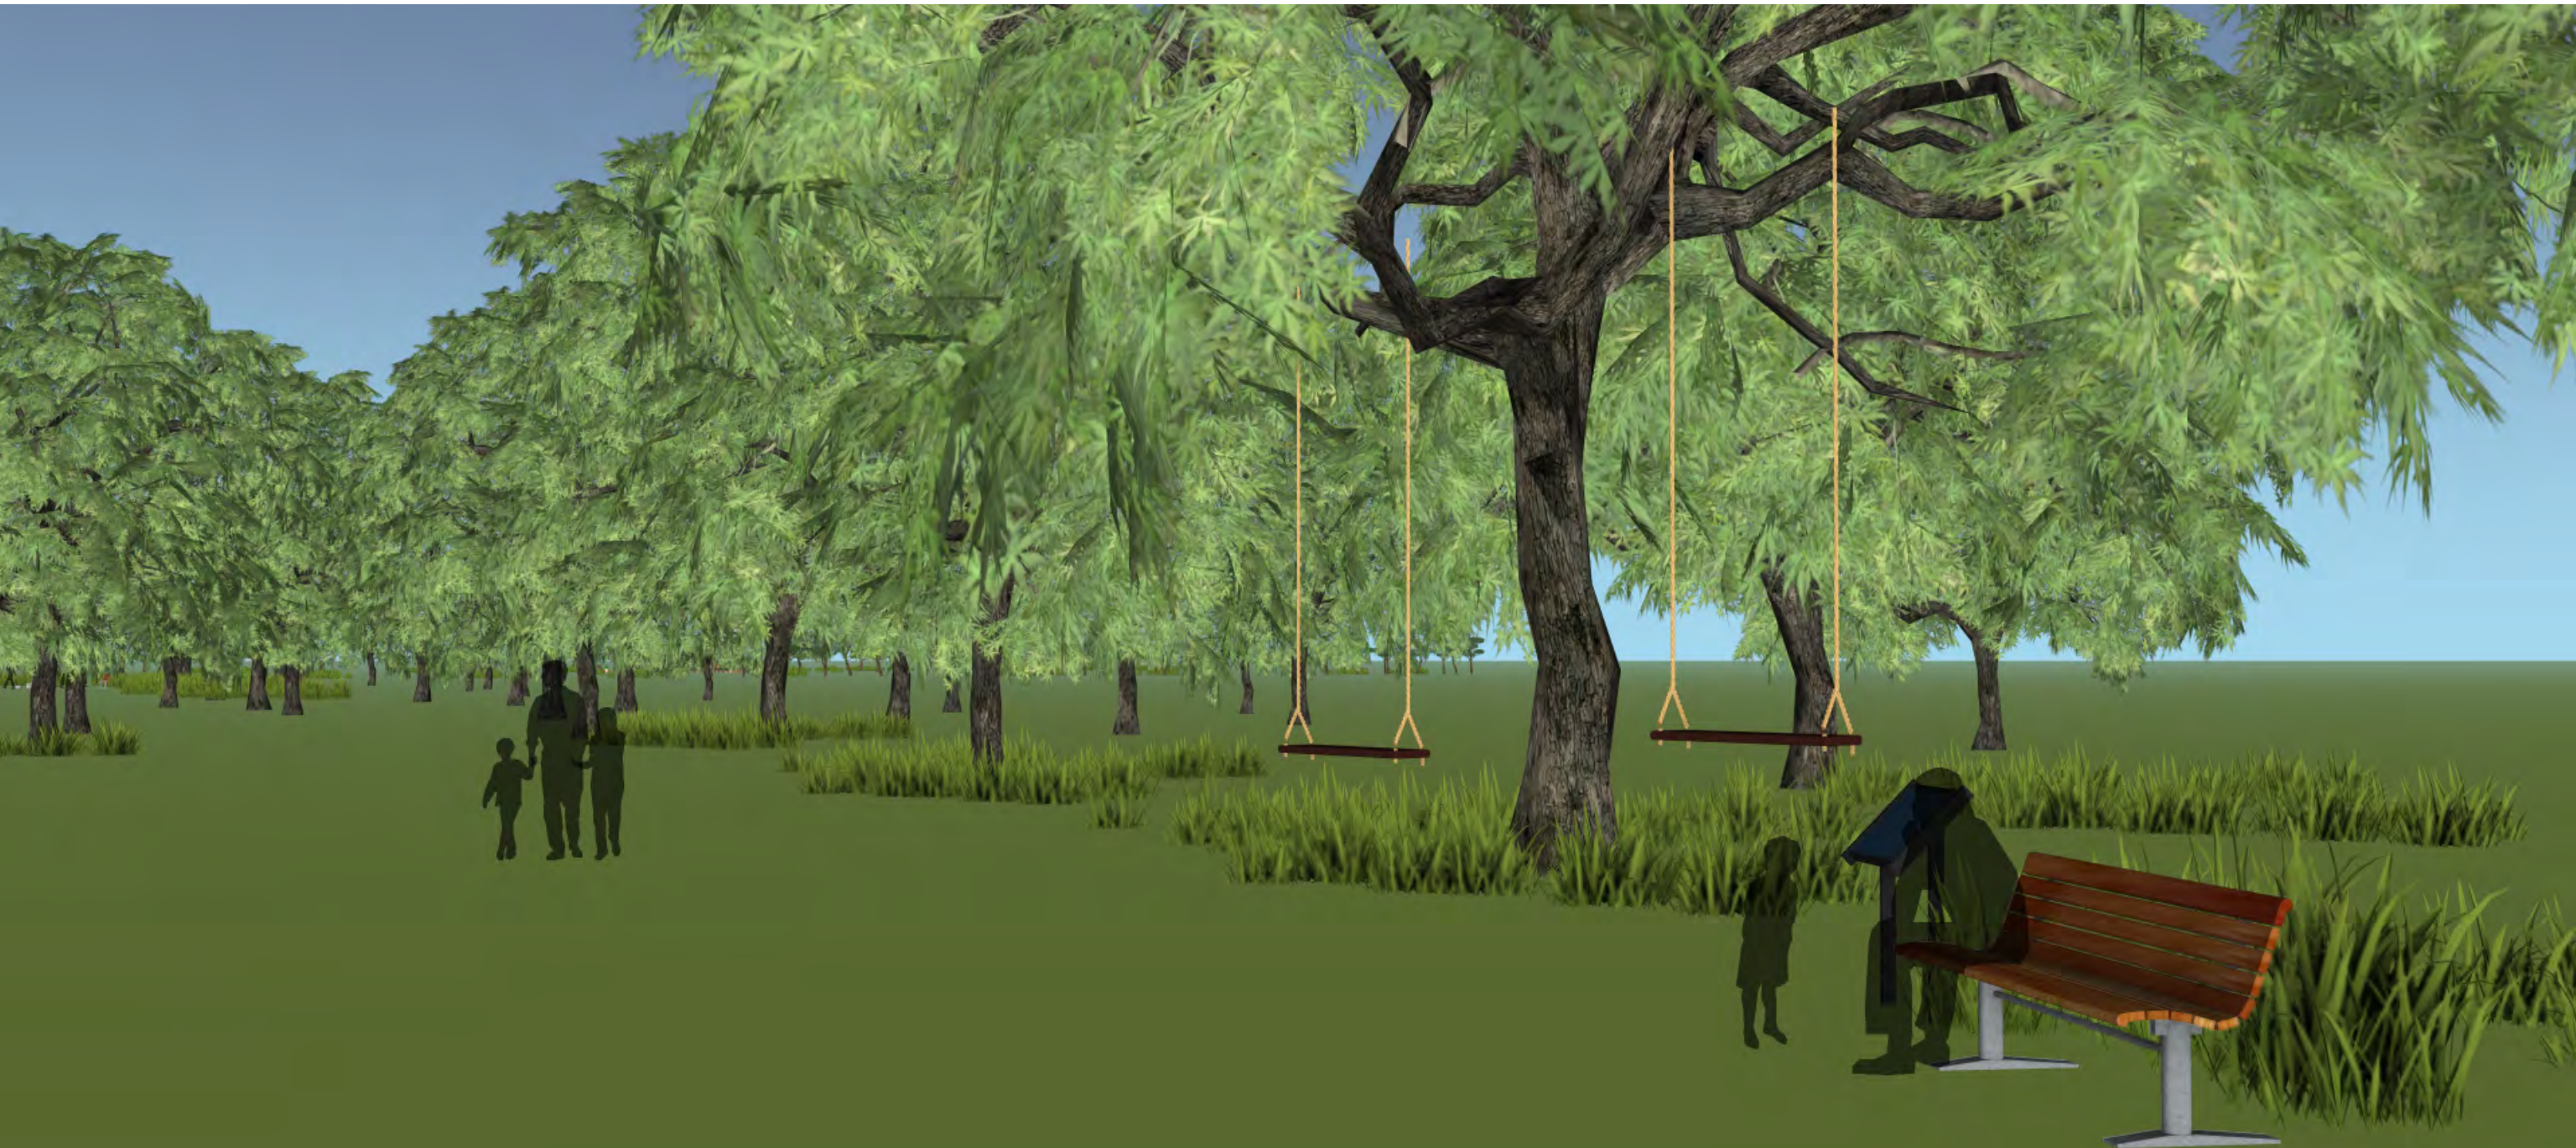

Trail Interactions - Expression Zone

By the Pavilion would be a chalk wall where people could draw, write and express themselves

Trail Interactions - Tree Swings

In the Maple Grove would be swings hung from the trees for a different trail interaction

Thank You!
